Securely Share Data Through DHIN

Healthcare data is important to every aspect of the healthcare industry; viewing and interpreting a patient's data and charts is one of the first steps for a doctor takes when seeing a patient. But sharing healthcare data can also lead to healthier outcomes. At DHIN, we understand the importance of sharing healthcare data, and we also understand securely sharing data is vital.

OVERALL SECURITY RATING

A 888 / 950

Delaware Health Information Network has a robust security posture and good attack surface management.

During a recent security assessment, DHIN received one of the highest marks an organization can achieve (left) and an "A" rating. DHIN was also assessed as an industry leader in network security, network vulnerability management and operational risk.

We also strive to ensure our network is also secure. After a TruRisk assessment of our cloud-based server, we recieved a low score equating to a more secure server.

We conduct and participate in these and other security assessments on a regular basis, ensuring that our systems are up to par and that the data shared with us is secure.

DHIN Named to Modern Healthcare's "Best Place to Work in Healthcare" List for 2026

Modern Healthcare recently named DHIN to its "Best Place to Work in Healthcare" for 2026. DHIN joined an elite list of 150 organizations across the nation recognized by Modern Healthcare as a top place to work.

At DHIN, we believe our employees are our greatest strength. Teamwork, innovation, respect and shared purposes are the cornerstones of our organization's culture and drive us to achieve our goals on a daily basis. Our team has a passion to improve healthcare in Delaware and the surrounding region and the passion shines through in receiving this award.

DHIN's Roomet Earns Business Relationship Management Professional Certification

DHIN's Business Relationship Manager (BRM) Dana Roomet recently earned a certificate from the Business Relationship Management Institute. Her Business Relationship Management certificate showcases her proficiency in BRM practices and skills and her knowledge of how to proctor relationships in the industry. Dana is our BRM for New Castle County, Delaware.

Congratulations Dana!

June is Men's Health Month

June is Men's Health month. This month, the American Institute for Boys and Men (AIBM) and others work to heighten the awareness of preventable health problems and encourage early detection and treatment of disease among men and boys.

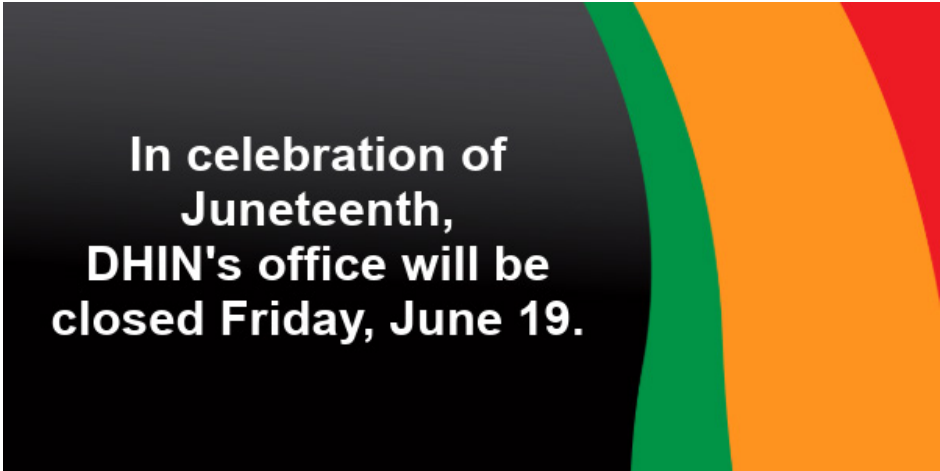

On average, men die five years earlier than women and are more likely to skip routine health check-ups. Visit AIBM's website to learn more about Men's Health Month and the organization.
